Attention: To Whom It May Concern

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: IN-SITU CONSTRUCTION & MAINTENANCE

This is to advise that Van Der Meer Consulting and VDM Group have dealt with In-Situ Construction and Maintenance for many years.

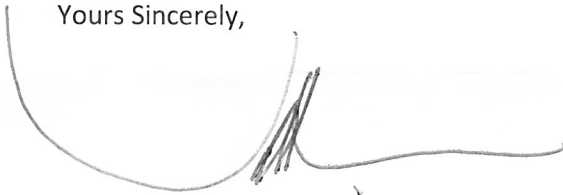

During our long association we have found them to be diligent in their work methods constantly delivering a high quality product.

They have a good organizational structure and are more than willing to work the hours required to deliver a project within agreed time frames.

Their cooperation in dealing with technical requirements and site issues is second to none. They are a true relationship building company.

We have no hesitation what so ever in recommending them.

Yours Sincerely,

James van der Meer
